Frauds in the Internal Revenue Department.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17.—Within the past few days immense frauds against the Internal Revenue Department have been discovered in petroleum operations. Three of the largest wells at Pithole have been seized by the Government.

From Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 16.—It is announced that Monterey has been captured by the Liberals, who claim that they can take Matamoras when they choose.

Captain Sinclair, late Lieutenant of the privateer Alabama, captured an Imperial transport on the Rio Grande, brought her to Brownsville and turned her over to the Federal authorities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The five per cent. one and two years Treasury notes, falling due on and after the first proximo, will be paid at the Treasury Department at maturity.

LATEST BY MAIL.

From Mexico—Capture of Gen. Ortega.

HAVANA, Nov 8.—The defeat and capture of Ortega in Michoacan has been the great reverse which the Mexican Republicans have just sustained, and its importance will be appreciated when it is stated that, organized by the General just named, and by General Regules, that party occupied posts which enabled it to control all the trade and activity of the district. It is curious to remark that this force, divided into three bodies, has been nullified or destroyed within the period of a few days. One division, under Palacio, wished to surprise Morelia, but was foiled by the firmness of its Belgian garrison.—Another party, under Lepeda, marched toward Re—, and was cut to pieces by Colonel Carriedo. The remaining division was dispersed by Colonel Men—. The total number in the three corps was about two thousand and two hundred, and Ortega, at the time of his defeat, had one thousand and two hundred men with him. The encounter took place at Santa Anna Amatlan. Four hundred remain prisoners, including their General, five Colonels, and a great number of officers of other grades. The arms, horses and baggage were captured also, while the fugitives dispersed in all directions.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.—The latest Brownsville advices say that the Liberals, under Generals Escobade, Cortinas, Canales and Mendes, are vigorously continuing the siege of Matamoras. They captured, on the 5th, the steamer Rio Grande, and brought her to Clarksville to change her to a gun-boat. The Liberals held the river above and below the town, which has been evacuated by the women and children, who have sought refuge on the American side. It is thought they will capture the place. While the Federal forces on the American side of the river were enthusiastically cheering the progress of the Liberal besiegers on Thursday last, the Imperial steamer Pessano fired four shots at them. The casualties by this strange proceeding are unknown.

Hon. George Davis, of North Carolina, late Attorney-General of the Confederate States, arrived in New York Wednesday, having been arrested in Florida. He will be carried to Washington.

Governor Morton's message was delivered to the Indiana Legislator on Tuesday. It treats of various State matters, recommending the repeal of the statute excluding negro testimony from the courts, and approves of President Johnson's reconstruction policy, advocates representation in Congress in proportion to the voting population, and expresses the opinion that the public safety requires the trial of Jeff. Davis for treason and other crimes.

Colonel Taylor and Rev. Mr. Reid, of the Indian commission to the Northwest, report the conclusion of treaties with nine tribes of the Sioux nation, the treaties stipulating for peace among the Indians themselves, as well as with the Government.

Action on the many applications for special pardon is nearly altogether suspended by the President, whose time is occupied with the consideration of business of a pressing if not more important character.

—Gen. Albert Pike, of Arkansas, was in Petersburg last Thursday.

—One county in Tennessee, Wilson, was damaged $7,800,000 by the war.

—The War debt of Texas is estimated at $9,000,000.

—Pithole is a hole of some value. It gives $200,000 worth of oil per day.

—J. C. Moberly, of New Market, Maryland, a student in the University of Maryland, was arrested and sent to prison on Thursday by the military authorities of Baltimore for alleged disloyalty. He cheered for Jeff. Davis, and wished the Yankees in a very hot place.

The young men indicted for riding an aged man named Wheeler on a rail, in Gloucester, Massachusetts, on the day of President Lincoln's funeral, are now on trial before the Superior Criminal Court sitting at Lawrence.

The Brandon, (Mississippi) Republican says that some negroes formerly belonging to Joseph Hudnal, Esq., and who left him during the war, have recently written him a most piteous letter, asking him to let them come back and live with him as heretofore.

State Items.

The steamer Twilight, Capt. Spicer, bound from New York to Wilmington, with merchandize and passengers, went ashore at New Inlet bar, directly abreast of Fort Fisher, at four o'clock on the morning of the 14th inst. The revenue cutter Northerner, Capt. Henriques, went to her assistance early in the morning, but was unable to render her any aid until high water in the afternoon, at 3.30 P. M., gave her a hawser, and after several attempts failed to put her afloat. Five o'clock in the afternoon, took off her passengers, mails, baggage and other valuables and ship papers, and brought them to Wilmington. The Twilight was said to be laying very easy at last accounts, and the agents have procured vessels to go down and make another attempt to get her afloat.—It is stated that she lies about the wreck of the blockade running steamer Condor, foundered during the blockade of the port.

Mr. D. W. Hartt, merchant tailor on Pollock street, Newbern, was imprisoned in Craven street jail, Wednesday, for, as we understand, resenting an insult offered him by a United States officer whilst the latter was under the influence of liquor.

Rev. S. S. Ashley, superintendent of education for the freedman's bureau in the Southern district of North Carolina, in his report just forwarded to headquarters, remarks: "On the part of many influential white people in this district, there has been manifested, not only a cheerful acquiescence in the efforts for the education of the freedmen, but a readiness to sympathize with and encourage such efforts. Some perhaps may despise them and treat teachers and schools with contempt. Such are not the thinking, reliable men of the South. The free labor of this age and country must and will be educated. The sagacious statesmen of the South accept the decree. I firmly believe that there will be no serious interference with the freedmen's schools except by the ignorant and vicious."

The dwelling of J. T. McKay, Esq., in Fayetteville, was burned Saturday night. The house was owned by E. L. Pemberton.

On Thursday, while a colored operative, named John Hines, employed on the Wilmington and Weldon rail road, was under a car repairing it, he carelessly placed his foot on the rail, and the car being moved in order to couple it, ran over his foot, and it is feared he will lose it and a part of his leg.

The demand for freight accommodations is now very great. Immense quantities of cotton and naval stores now block up the Wilmington wharves, awaiting shipment to New York and other points. As an evidence of the growing prosperity of that city, the commercial column of the Journal, on Wednesday, showed an arrival on the previous day, of twenty-five hundred barrels of turpentine.

The "Local" of the Newbern Times threatens to expose some fellow who sold one of the Newbern merchants a barrel of turpentine "with twenty pounds of clay or sand in the centre." People who put their fingers into turpentine, says a cotemporary, must expect to be stuck. So says our "coon."

Southern Items.

The newly organized militia company in Natches, the Adams Troop, under the command of Captain William T. Martin, assembled on the 26th for drill. The Democrat says there was a very good attendance.

[Captain Martin was formerly General Martin, of the Confederate army.]

ALABAMA.—The Mobile Tribune states that the Hon. A. J. Requier, one of the most esteemed and distinguished citizens of Mobile, is about to remove to the city of New York, as a place of permanent residence, and with a view to the exercise of his profession.

Mr. William Nimmo Ghiselin, a native of Norfolk, and formerly a well known merchant in New Orleans, died recently in Cincinnati.

The President has pardoned Wm. Echols, State Treasurer of Mississippi; also Ex-Governor Pettus.

The Montgomery Mail says that the small pox is gradually but surely spreading throughout that city.

The Selma Messenger states that the negroes of that city have held a meeting to appoint delegates to a negro Convention in Mobile; but it did not learn the result of their labors.

The Selma Messenger announces the death of Dr. Cabell, a highly esteemed citizen of that place.

Among the candidates spoken of for U. S. Senator, Col. John Forsyth, of Mobile, is mentioned.

GEORGIA.—A correspondent of the Atlanta Intelligencer communicates to that paper very interesting facts in relation to the gold mines of Carroll county. He says that Pine Mountain, within two miles of the Villa Rica, is composed of veins of gold-bearing quartz, which could be profitably worked by a dozen engines and five hundred men for the next twenty years. There are several other mines of equal richness in the same county, which only require capital to make them available. Parallel with the gold veins runs a "copper streak," in which shafts have already been found. The ore raised has proved to be of the best character. The line of the railroad lately projected, from Atlanta to Jacksonville, Ala., will run between these gold and copper mines. The completion of this road will facilitate the working of so rich a field.

The jail of Macon was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 31st. It is supposed to have been set on fire by the prisoners.

A correspondent of the Atlanta Era warmly urges the claims of Gen. John B. Gordon for the next Governor of Georgia.

Hon. Howell Cobb has taken up his residence in Macon, with the intention of practicing his profession.

LOUISIANA.—The Baton Rouge Advocate, of the 30th ult., says:

We notice many small caravans from the back country, accompanied by dogs, sheep, horses, cattle, and no end of little ones, crossing the river at this point, westward bound. They are hunting a better country than this to live in, but from all accounts Texas is not that better land by long odds.

Governor Wells is actively organizing the militia of Louisiana.

The Shreveport News, of the 24th, reports cotton still arriving very freely.

THE CITY.

☞ Parties in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us with such notices of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

COUNTERFEIT FIFTY DOLLAR GREENBACKS.—Well executed counterfeits of fifty dollar legal tender notes are now in circulation. But two points of difference are apparent between these and the genuine issues. One of them is in that part of the engraving of the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited.—This difference is not readily observed unless the note is perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on the green ground, of which the rim in the genuine bill is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appear to be circles may be easily discerned.—In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles.

A MEDICAL CHARITY.—In other cities physicians are forming what they call medical charities, for the purpose of furnishing attendance, free of charge, to the indigent poor of the city, both white and black. No class of gentlemen in our midst are possessed of a higher spirit of liberality than those of the medical profession and no doubt they will be found ready to cooperate in any scheme which gives promise of benefiting the population particularized. But the citizens would have a part to perform—it will be requisite for them to establish a fund for the procurement of medicines, &c. There are probably in the churches persons whose christian dispositions peculiarly fit them for leadership in such a good work. We appeal to them to step forward in the front rank in behalf of the charitable enterprise suggested. If they lead, we presume others will follow.

THE RETURNS COMPLETE.—We gave in yesterday's issue the complete returns from this (the 4th) congressional district, with the exception of Franklin county. We now add that and the result is as annexed:

FOR CONGRESS.—4TH DISTRICT.

	Russ.	Turner.	Edwards.
Chatham,	823	600	12
Nash,	98	285	10
Orange,	65	1069	2
Warren,	7	502	8
Wake,	1824	460	64
Granville,	254	659	184
Johnson,	612	138	00
Franklin,	46	510	37
	3229	4179	307

Mr. Turner's majority over Col. Russ is 941—over both Russ and Edwards 634.

CHOLORINE GAS.—The following is the most powerful and efficacious disinfectant known; it was used successfully throughout Great Britain and Scotland some years ago when cholera was so prevalent and fatal there. We advise our readers to cut it out and preserve it:

One part black oxide of magnese; three parts common salt, and pour over a little common vitriol. This makes the gas—a light colored smoke. Do not inhale it, but place it on a table in the hall of the house; the fumes will get up stairs and purify the whole building. A pound will purify the house for a month. It is also a good preventive of typus fever, even in the worst localities. It is said cholera never came where this was used.

NEW LINE.—Another important connection between North Carolina and Virginia has recently been established from Newbern via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal. The proprietor's notice appears this morning, from which it appears that each of his steamers is capable of carrying two hundred and fifty tons of freight, besides excellent accommodations for passengers. There is a constantly increasing intercourse between Norfolk and our State, and we direct the attention of shippers as well as others to this new outlet to market.

WRONG COLOR.—McGuire, the man arrested for horse stealing and supposed to be implicated in the outrage upon Mr. H. O. Parker and wife, is a white man and is said to have been a private in the 48th New York regiment before it was mustered out of service. We are sorry to hear, if the suspicions of his guilt are well founded, that he was ever connected with a military organization which won so largely upon popular esteem here.

DISSOLUTION.—The firm of Holleman, Upchurch & Co., has been dissolved, but, as may be seen from advertisement, Messrs. Upchurch & Dodd are to continue the business at the sandstone front building, No. 4, Hargett street. They are young men of enterprise and energy; have an establishment well filled with choice groceries, and those in search of such articles should give them a trial.

BREAKING IN.—The shop of John Jackson, a worthy colored man, was entered night before last and most of his store of worldly goods appropriated. The owner was in the back room and had only latched the front door, but the rogues entered so stealthily as not to warn him of their presence.

INTERNAL OFFICE.—Col. E. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for North Carolina, has just issued the following order, important to the white as well as black population:

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 10, 1865.

All officers and agents of this Bureau, and teachers of freedmen, will publish as widely as possible the following instructions:

I. In view of the fact that government aid now given to the destitute may soon be withdrawn, freedmen now living in camps, colonies and towns, are directed to find employment at once, by which they may support themselves.

II. Officers and agents of the Bureau will issue no more rations to any refugees or freedmen who refuse situations where they might earn their support.—While the impotent and well disposed will be protected, vagrant idlers who try to live without any honest calling, will be promptly arrested and punished.

III. Paupers will, as soon as practicable, be turned over to the "Wardens of the Poor" for support, and officers and agents will co-operate with such wardens in providing for the infirm and helpless. Until ample provision is made by the civil authorities, such persons will not be forcibly removed from the plantations where they were living at the close of the war.

IV. Orphans and children of parents who have no honest calling, or visible means of support, and other minors, with the consent of their parents, may be apprenticed to some good trade or occupation, in accordance with the laws of the State applying to white children. Every effort will be made to provide in this way good homes for all minors, now dependent upon the Government, that they may not become vagrants and paupers.

THE INDIAN SUMMER.—The most delightful weather of the year, Indian summer, is being enjoyed by ye Raleighians. The days are bright and beautiful, the nights warm and hazy, and altogether we seem to be living in May rather than November. It is blessing to the rich as it saves their fuel—to the poor who had no such supplies.

AUCTION Bills, Business Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, and in fact printing of all kinds done at the PROGRESS OFFICE with promptness and in the best style of the art; and as our facilities for printing are more extensive and better than those of any other establishment in the State, at lower rates than the same can be done elsewhere.

HERE THEY ARE—Johnson in a fry and People's, of the Yarborough on a half-shell. We must confess, in the meantime, that the remembrance of our friends was] opportune—12 o'clock, half a dozen hungry typos, three devils and three freedmen. The vote in favor of Johnson and Peoples's as great caterers was, ayes one hundred thousand—nays 00.

ARRANDALE & CO., Manufacturers Agents, No. 167 Broadway, New York.

Announce that all of the above list of goods will be sold for One Dollar each.

In consequence of the great stagnation of trade in the manufacturing districts of England, through the war having cut off the supply of cotton, a large quantity of Valuable Jewelry, originally intended for the English market, has been sent off for sale in this country, and MUST BE SOLD AT ANY SACRIFICE! Under these circumstances, ARRANDALE & Co., acting as agents for the principal European manufacturers have resolved upon a to be divided according to the following regulations:

Certificates of the various articles are put into envelopes indiscriminately, sealed up, and when ordered, are taken out without regard to choice, and sent by mail, thus, showing no favoritism. On receipt of the certificate, you will see what you are to have, and then it is at you option to send the dollar and take the article or not. Purchasers may thus obtain a Gold Watch, Diamond Ring, or any set of Jewelry on our list for One Dollar.

SEND 25 CENTS FOR CERTIFICATE.

In all transactions by mail, we shall charge for forwarding the certificates, paying postage and doing the business, 25 cents each, which must be enclosed when the Certificate is sent for. Five certificates will be sent for $1, eleven for $2, thirty for $5, sixty-five for $10, one hundred for $15.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF US.

The Lafayette (Ind.) Daily Courier, March 18, 1865, says: "A better selected, more varied or fashionable assortment of jewelry cannot be found on the continent than Arrandale & Co. are now offering. Messrs. Arrandale & Co. occupy a high position in commercial circles as men entirely above the common trickery of trade. Their statements may be implicitly relied upon, both as to the character of their goods and the manner of disposal. Ladies especially, in all parts of the country, are realizing handsome profits as agents, and if any of our fair readers desire to interest themselves in the enterprise, they may do so with perfect confidence.

GREAT GIFT DISTRIBUTION.—A rare opportunity is offered for obtaining watches, chains, diamond rings, silver ware, etc., by Messrs. Arrandale & Co. at No. 167 Broadway. They have an immense stock of articles, varying in value, and all are offered at one dollar each. The distribution is very fairly done—you agree to take a certificate of a certain article, enclosed in an envelope, and are not required to pay your dollar unless you are satisfied with the article, which will certainly be worth more than that amount, and may be $50 or $100. An excellent mode this of investing a dollar—Sunday Times, N Y City, Feb 19, 1865.

Messrs Arrendale & Co have long been personally known to us, and we believe them to be every way worthy of public confidence.—N Y Scottish American Journal, June 11, 1864.

By Messrs. Arrandale & Co.'s arrangement, the advantages must be on the side of the customer, for he has every thing to gain and nothing comparatively to lose. He knows what he will get for his dollar beforehand, and he need not send it if he is not satisfied.—N. Y. Daily News, Aug. 6, 1864.

We know the firm in question to be very respectable and thoroughly worthy of public confidence, and recommend our friends to read their advertisement.—N. Y. Albion, Sept. 3, 1864.

EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES.—The most eligible and profitable employment we have heard of for ladies is the sale of certificates for the Great Gift Distribution of Arrandale & Co. A lady of our acquaintance has been very successful in this way, not only filling her own purse, but also in doing a good turn to those to whom she sold the Certificates, as will be seen by our advertising columns. Gentlemen can also be thus engaged.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury, Aug. 1s, 1865.

AGENTS.—We want agents in every regiment, and in every town and county in the country, and those acting as such will be allowed 10 cents on every certificate ordered by them, provided their remittance amounts to one dollar, also other inducements which can be learned on application. Agents will collect 25 cents for every Certificate, and remit 15 cents to us either in cash or postage stamps. ARRANDALE & CO.,

Loyalty and Disloyalty in North Carolina—A Balance Sheet.

Last summer, solitary and alone, we braved popular prejudice, and told the government at Washington and the people of the North, that if the troops were suddenly withdrawn from the State, it would be but a short time before secessionists and traitors would tar and feather Union men, and especially Northern men, as in 1860, and that neither the Union men nor the blacks would be safe in the then existing condition of things, if the strong arm of the military should be withdrawn. We spoke what we believed to be true; we believed it then and we believe it now; we believed such to be the condition of things then and we believe it to be as bad or worse now. But then we were alone—denounced on all sides, or chided for our rashness—but conscious of being right, and that events would prove us right, we stood firm; and now we have the satisfaction of seeing our then expressed views pretty generally concurred in by all loyal men. We opposed confiscation and punishment, believing that our people generally would come to their senses, and cheerfully submit to the condition of things, and give a zealous support to those here and at Washington who were laboring to bring the country back to its former quiet and prosperity; but we were mistaken, and we are now satisfied that justice, which would have confiscated the estates and imprisoned or punished the persons of the leading traitors, would have been much better for the whole people and the future of the country than the mistaken leniency of the President and Provisional Govornor. Confiscation and punishment would have insured submission to authority, and have stifled and strangled treason, but leniency and mercy have emboldened the leaders until the Government, its officers, soldiers and friends are sneered at and held in contempt. Pharisee-like, they sing hosannas to the Union from the street corners, but they at the same time circulate petitions for the arch-traitor in the churches, schools and families; and, give them a chance to vote between a secessionist and an ultra Union man, and the former partizans of Davis and the so-called "Confederate" leaders, all cast their suffrages against the loyal candidate. Now, the question arises, ought such men to be allowed to vote at all? Andrew Johnson's instructions were that none but loyal men should be allowed to take part in the work of reconstruction, but it is well known in this State that no one has been hindered from voting save a few who failed to get their pardons through, while there are thousands who are the declared enemies of the Government.

We know that Governor Holden has yielded to his natural generous impulses in this matter of allowing the disaffected to vote, but he has committed a great error in yielding to those generous impulses, and one that we fear is to give us much trouble. From fifteen to twenty thousand men have voted in this State that ought not to have voted until the elections necessary in the work of reconstruction were all over, for while they profess loyalty and devotion to the Union, it is very apparent that they are not the friends of the Government or those who control it. We have said thus much by way of introduction to the following from the Standard of yesterday, which expresses the identical sentiments that we uttered last summer, and for which we were abused, not by the Standard, but by other papers, because such declaration of facts would hinder immigration. We proclaimed the truth then and we proclaim it now, and the people of the North, and those who administer the Government, will find it to be truth. The Standard says:

"The Sentinel is trying to crawfish out of its present position in opposition to Gov. Holden's administration and President Johnson's policy. For the sake of office the Sentinel and its supporters flung themselves in opposition to the policy of the President, and has stirred up strife and prevented the return of the State. It is just what traitors might have been expected to do, and whatever their professions may be they have done the traitor's work. This is the plain English. We intend to hold them to it.

"Six months ago there was not one word of opposition; four months ago the Sentinel did not "peep" even about opposition, but now men are vieing with each other in the work of stirring up strife, hindering the Provisional Governor in his work, and raking up old Confederate issues. This is the plain, unmistakable work of traitors—unpardoned, virulent, traitors.

"We are not injuring the State or any one in stating this fact. We are doing a duty to expose it.—We did not seek the revival of their treasonable sentiments, or an issue with any one. We have been glad to believe at times that all was peace. But now they themselves have torn the veil away. They themselves have brought this whole thing about. By plotting darkly, by exciting discontent and urging unpardoned men to become candidates in defiance of the wishes and instructions of President Johnson, they have drawn the line of demarcation. They have placed themselves at the head of the discontented, the unpardoned and the unconquered. Their work has been that which might have been expected from traitors, and such they are.

"We told them that they could not get back into the Union, pursuing the path they took. Of what avail was that? They laughed it to scorn. They do not wish to get back into the Union under Union men. They hate the Yankees still. It has been no love-feast to them, and as the work of reconstruction has gone on, they have more and more plainly showed their real feelings. It is a delight to them to retard the work of reconstruction carried on by loyal men. If they are to go back at all, they wish to go back as they left, under secession leaders. For this purpose they have exerted every energy. They have stirred up strife, brought out unpardoned traitors for Congress, raked up old issues of every sort, established treasonable papers, opposed most because of their radical Union sentiments, denounced the Provisional Governor as a Southern traitor, or a Union traitor, as it pleased their purpose, opposed the ordinance nullifying secession, voted for the repudiation of the ordinance abolishing slavery, &c., &c., for the purpose of getting control themselves, at the expense of the Union men of the State. They would crush these Union men into the ground to-day, had they the power. They would murder, burn and hang as before. The old leaven is still alive in their hearts.—They are yet traitors.

"These men are better off being some things than they were even during the war. They are infinitely better off than our Union people were at that time, who were conscripted, dragged to camp, brow-beaten, insulted and denounced. This is owing to the clemency and kindness of the general government. Notwithstanding their stereotyped phrases during the war that the yankee rule would render the South a hell, that death was preferable, that President Lincoln was a baboon and Andrew Johnson a brute, notwithstanding these things, they are to-day living monuments of the kindness and magnanimity of President Johnson and the yankee government. Do they think, therefore, that when they begin political intrigues again, when they publicly denounce the Provisional Governor, incite opposition to all loyal movements, vote down men because of their radical Unionism, that they can hide behind the flimsy pretext of their new pledged loyalty merely, and be safe? Our people are too well acquainted with their old tricks and old professions to fail to understand and properly appreciate these new movements on their part. It is the same old leaven. All its works show it plainly. It is the leaven of treason.

"Now let the Union men meet them boldly. When they begin to crow of their patriotism and love for the Union, and denounce this loyal man and that loyal man to praise this traitor and that traitor, why put them down with those traitors.

"Would you expect them to stand on the street corners and openly denounce the general government and the President? Rather, would you not, expect them to be profuse in expressions of love for the above named. It is not their purpose now to do this thing, yet were the hand of power off them they would do it. They have gone just as far as they think they are safe in going. They preach charity, magnanimity and kindness, yet the very first chance they have had, they have attempted to strike down the Provisional Governor and regain control of affairs. Good God, do you expect that we will not interpret facts by the light of experience? This was their old method, their sly, hypocritical way of doing things. Praying for a cause, in whose ultimate success the Editor of the Sentinel himself will confess that he had no faith, they preached its holiness and invoked the blessings of God upon it. Now these men turn around, and pleading for magnanimity, moderation and charity, they secretly stir up strife, and at length throwing off all concealment, enter the lists boldly, denouncing the Provisonal Governor and his government. They make the best use of all the privilege given them against the friends of the government, and grumble because they do not receive more.

"We are for meeting them now where they have placed themselves, on the side of treason and disaffection, and treating them as such promptly."

Apprehension Caused by the Defeat of Governor Holden.

The heart of every man in North Carolina who really loves the Union has been made sad by the probable defeat of Governor Holden; and this depression is not to be wondered at, for those who confidently counted on his election were sanguine of a speedy return to the Union, of an early liberation from military rule and the immediate restoration of civil authority. Now, by the triumph of the enemies of the Government and the foes of the Administration, the probabilities are that we are to remain for an indefinite period under martial law and have no voice in the national councils: enough in all conscience to cast a gloom and depression on the most hopeful and sanguine. Had the people have accepted the actual condition of things, and been willing to return to the Union upon the plan proposed by the national authorities, they would have adhered to and endorsed the officers and agents of the Government, and accepted the policy indicated by the President of the United States, through them, instead of defiantly setting up one of their own. The fact is, and there is no use in concealing it, it is the old leaven of secession and disaffection at work, and until the Government adopts more stringent measures towards the wealthy and influential leaders of this disaffection than any that have yet been applied, it will increase in violence and become more and more dangerous. Leniency towards leading traitors has, instead of humbling and improving them, only emboldened them to have treason recognized as a virtue. They profess great devotion to the Union and admiration for Andrew Johnson, but they will not admit that secession was treason, or even wrong—on the contrary, contend that the rebellion was a most sacred cause, and, while the "Yenkees" overcame its defenders, God Almighty and the angelic hosts fought on the side of Davis and Benjamin. Such were the doctrines inculcated from the pulpit and religious press, and such are now the articles of faith insisted on in whisperd and bated breath by the brotherhood.

Day after day these leaders of disaffection, preachers, lawyers, saints and sinners, swear their allegiance to the Government—they get protection, charity and everthing they can from the Government by hypocrisy and false representations—but when a loyal man and a disaffected man, a friend to the Government and an enemy of the Government, comes before them for votes, they invariably support the one that is the farthest removed from loyalty. Religious and Copperhead papers may swear that these things are not so, and, of course, we expect them to do it, and yet all who are really the friends of the Union and the enemies of treason know them to be true.

The hearts of good men everywhere are depressed and full of gloomy forebodings. A gentleman of high position and fine intelligence, writing us from a distant part of the State, says:

"The defeat of Mr. Holden and the election of an unsatisfactory delegation to Congress, has, indeed, embarrassed our situation very much. I am very confident that the test oath will not be repealed—[illegible] an important work of the [illegible] session. The Northern elections will unquestionably strengthen the President in maintaining the stand he has already taken, with remarkable [illegible]. It is impossible for him to take a "step backward" and no sound Union man can expect him to do so.

"Every day's experience demonstrates that the Republic can only be preserved by stamping treason and punishing as crimes of the first magnitude [illegible]

While all the copperhead papers of the South profess to be the supporters of Andrew Johnson's policy of reconstruction, and charmed with the man generally, they bemoan the recent victory of the friends of the President and the Government, in the North, as a great calamity to the South. Andrew Johnson is rejoiced at the success of his friends and the friends of the Government in the recent elections in the Northern States, but the disaffected down here, though professing to be for the President, pretend to apprehend great trouble from the success of his friends in the North. The truth is, if Andrew Johnson can be induced to forsake the country and those who placed him where he is, and place himself at the head of the enemies of the Government, North and South, Southern secessionists will adhere to him and support him; but if he stands firm, remains true to those who elected him, punishes treason and keeps traitors out of office, there is not one of them that will support his administration now or vote for him hereafter. We look on that party at the North, that saved the Government of WASHINGTON from the hands of traitors, as its best friends, and hence we rejoice at their success in the recent elections, especially at the overthrow of the copperheads in New Jersey. The copperhead press here are unanimous in their expressions of sorrow and regret at the success of the friends of the Government North, and one of the Cape Fear luminaries speaks of "the adverse pressure occasioned by the result of the Northern elections" as likely to keep us out of the Union for some time. The fact is, they mean to insist upon going back in accordance with their secession programme or not at all. Had they to remain out alone, we should not care if they never got back.

CERTAIN papers on the lower Cape Fear are very anxious to draw us into a controversy, but we cannot, on account of the limited space left us by our advertising patrons, accommodate them. We have thought that the hot season had passed and that our Cape Fear cotemporaries would have cleansed their systems of bile before this time, but we suppose they have not, as their emissions are decidedly billious. Persons who promised the friends of the "Confederacy," so-called, success and independence but four weeks before the final surrender, should be careful how they charge others of "libelling." One of the best evidences of disaffection in North Carolina, is the war that is made by those suspected persons who had much difficulty in getting military permits to start their publications, upon loyal men. Loyalty, indeed, when the real friends of the Union are assailed by recently pardoned rebels, who can only speak by permission of the Provost Marshal!

We advise these Cape Fear malcontents to be careful as to diet, and eschew hot beverages until all billious matter shall be got clear of.

The following advertisement appears in a late Richmond paper:

WANTED—A situation as son-in-law in a respectable family. Blood and breeding no object, being already supplied; capital essential. No objection to going a short distance into the country. Address F. F. V.,
Exchange Hotel.

This was probably a questionable sort of waggery. But in the National Intelligencer, some years ago, the advertisement of a bona fide seeker for household comforts thus announced his proposal:

WANTED—By the advertiser, board in a respectable family, where his godly example and Christian conversation will be accepted as a sufficient compensation. Address, etc.

A large and enthusiastic meeting in aid of the Southern people and the American Union Commission was held at Cooper Institute, New York, on Monday night. Addresses were made by Senator Morgan, Governor Parsons, of Alabama, Rev. Dr. Thomson, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and Generals Meade and Fisk. Senator Morgan presided, and Rev. Dr. Bacon opened the meeting with prayer.—Letters were read from Secretary Seward and Generals Grant and Sherman.

On Saturday last Major General Howard addressed a large assemblage of freedmen at Jackson, Miss. He assured them that the plantation lands would not be divided among them, and that the freedom they enjoyed was the privilege to work for their living and support. The State Legislature is still engaged in discussing the negro testimony question.

Considerable excitement prevails in Canada in consequences of supposed threatened raids by the Fenians. Two battalions had received orders to hold themselves in readiness for instant duty, and the guards at the volunteer armories had been doubled by reason of information received of the designs and projects of the order against the Provinces.

The United States' Treasurers monthly statement for October has just been made public, from which it appears that the total amount of coin on deposit the first of this month was nearly one hundred millions of dollars. About thirty millions of this amount was on deposit in the national banks, but was considered available at any moment by the government.

In Brooklyn, New York, on Monday, a horrible case of destitution was revealed. In a wretched tenement in Richardson street, a woman, Mrs. Kapel, an emigrant from Germany, was found dead, and her husband in an expiring condition, and their four small children in the most miserable and suffering condition.

The cholera is reported to have broke out at Woolwich, England. No fatal cases had been announced however. The appearance at Woolwich is by some attributed to the putrid matter brought back from the southern outfall of the sewerage, which, it was anticipated would have been effectually carried off, but which often lies on the surface of the ebb tide.

It is rumored that a new court is shortly to be organized for the trial of Dawson and Winder, now confined in the Old Capitol prison, charged with cruel treatment towards Union prisoners in Andersonville. Dawson, it will be remembered, appeared as a witness in the Wirz trial, but was arrested and committed to the Old Capitol. Young Winder is a son of the rebel General Winder, and was [illegible] at Andersonville while Wirz was there.—Washington Star.

It is said that the President, on Monday, informed an ex-Confederate general that it is not his present intention to pardon any more civil or military leaders of the rebellion.

The Insurrection in Jamaica.—A gentleman residing in Jamaica, writing to a friend in Boston under date of the 28d of October, gives some particulars not heretofore made public of the causes and origin of the negro insurrection in that island. He says that the negroes of the parish of St. Thomas in the East had, owing to their indolence and want of thrift, became greatly in arrears with their government taxes, the payment of which was finally peremptorily demanded by the authorities, and an armed force to protect the tax collector was ordered out. Meantime the negroes appealed to the courts, the decisions of which were against them.—After the third of these decisions being rendered, declaring that the taxes must be paid, the negroes set fire to the court-house and commenced a furious attack on the whites, during which two of the judges and other persons were killed. This was followed by many other outrages, till every white person and every colored person known to be in sympathy with the authorities was driven out of the parish.

Death of Judge Holt, of Georgia.—A Georgia paper of the 7th says: Judge Holt, of Columbus, died at Milledgeville about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, from the effects of paralysis which attacked him on the 1st while occupying his seat in the capitol. The Macon Telegraph, alluding to his worth, says that Col. Holt was a lawyer of eminence, and filled positions of trust and responsibility with credit to himself and his section. His loss will be deeply felt, not only by numerous friends who appreciated his social qualities, but by the legal fraternity who will miss from among them a bright ornament of the profession.

We learn that the track of the South Carolina Road is very nearly completed to Midway. The cars are expected to run to that place in seven or eight days. The road bed is also ready for the track to Kingsville, about twenty miles this side of Midway, and we may therefore reasonably look for an early completion of this important road which will place Charleston once more in railroad communication with the interior of Charleston.

We learn from the Montgomery Mail, of the 4th inst., that the receipts of cotton in that city from the first of May until the present time, amount, we understand numbers, to twenty-five thousand bales.

Southern States, Southern towns and other corporations borrow money at the North; Southern merchants buy goods at the North on credit; and that is the way the "Yankees" oppress us.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

Gentlemen—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

DAILY PROGRESS.

SATURDAY, NOV. 18, 1865.

—The military operations at Point Lookout are fast coming to a close. The quartermaster, Capt. H. E. Goodwin, and a small squad of soldiers, under the command of a captain, are the only officers and men now there. The cottages have nearly all been turned over to the owners. The stockade, which at one period enclosed some 16,000 Confederate prisoners, is still standing, as also are the long lines of empty hospital structures and extensive storehouses.

—At the farewell dinner which Sir Morton Peto gave in New York the other day, two hundred and fifty guests were present, and the dinner cost about $25,000, just $100 for each person, being, no doubt, the most elaborate banquet ever given in this country. At least twenty-four kinds of wine were drank, and the price of some of the brands, the imperial Tokay, for instance, was $50 per bottle.

—Major Henry T. Dixon, who was wounded in an affray with Dr. Maddux, in Alexandria, on Friday last, an account of which we have published, died of his injuries the next morning, about six o'clock, after suffering great agony. The shot fired by him passed through the leg of Maddux's pantaloons Dixon left a widow and eight children.

—It is reported that in such portions of the West where detachments of the Veteran Reserve Corps have been paraded, in accordance with the orders lately issued for voting themselves in or out of the service, the privates have shown more disposition to perpetuate their term of service than the officers, who are said to be almost unanimous in their desire to be mustered out.

—The Richmond Sentinel has been revived, taking the place of the morning edition of the Commercial Bulletin. The evening edition of the latter paper will be continued as heretofore. The editorial deparment will be conducted by Mr. Richard M. Smith, with Mr. A. M. Bailey as manager of the business department.

—The story sent to the leading New York papers about an attempt by Wirz's wife to poison him, by transferring a pill of strychnine to his mouth while kissing him, is pronounced by Mr. Schade, Wirz's counsel, to be a pure invention.

—There is trouble of a very serious character in one of the largest disbursing bureaus of the War Department. Clerks are at work the twenty-four hours through, attempting to make things straight before Congress assembles.

—The New Bedford Standard is of the opinion that the decision in favor of Mr. Harris, in the divorce case, settles the principle that in Connecticut a husband may whip his wife when he is dissatisfied with her conduct.

—General Francis H. Smith, Superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, has issued a circular appealing for aid to rebuild the barracks of that institution destroyed by order of General Hunter. Fifty thousand dollars are required.

—"Man proposes, but God disposes," said a pious aunt to her over-confident niece. "Let a man propose to me, if he dare," was the response, "and I will dispose of him according to my own views, as he suits me."

—The consecration of the Rev. Dr. Clarkson, as Bishop of Nebraska, took place at St. James' Church, Chicago, on the 15th. The services were very imposing.

—"I don't believe it's any use, this vaccination," said a son of the Emerald Isle; "I had a child vaccinated, and he fell out of the window a week arter, and got killed."

—Gen. Wm. Mahone has been appointed Surveyor of the new Water Company of Norfolk. Sensible Company.

—The Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will meet in Danville on the 22d of the present month.

—Queen Victoria's Carriage without occupants, at Lord Palmerston's funeral, was really paying empty honors to the dead.

—A new theatre is to be built in London, over what was once a pit used for throwing in the dead during the plague of 1675.

—James F Huffman, convicted at Staunton, Va., of horse stealing, has been sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary.

—Some say that the quickest way to destroy "weeds" is to marry a widow. It is no doubt a most delightful species of husbandry.

—A great fishing company, with a capital of one million dollars, has just been organized in East Boston, Mass.

—It costs fifteen dollars and a half to transport a barrel of flour, worth only twelve, from Savannah to Milledgeville.

—The theatrical managers in New York are about to give one night's performance each for the benefit of destitute persons at the South.

—Governor Brownslow of Tennessee, has appointed December seventh as a day for thanksgiving.

—Governor Boreman of West Virginia, has designated Thursday, the 7th of December, as a day of thanksgiving.

—The original of General Wilson's despatch announcing the capture of Jeff. Davis, was sold for $70 at the Philadelphia Fair.

—The Memphis Bulletin says there has been an unprecedented crop of cotton in Southern Tennessee this year.

—McClellan is said to have tendered his services to the Pope. He will make a splendid commander of a standing army.

—Our Illinois exchanges state that 25,000 bales of cotton will be produced in that State this year.

—Ten clergymen were elected representatives to the Massachusetts Legislature.

will radically exterminate from the system diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing those unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

in all cases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above disease, it is sure to affect his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

PHYSICIANS, PLEASE NOTICE!

We make no secret of the ingredients. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, and prepared in vacuo by H T HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist of sixteen years' experience in the city of Philadelphia, and which is now prescribed by the most eminent physicians, has been admitted to use in the United States army, and is also in very general use in State Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.
